

«Sleepy Workdays»

(Eng) Translated by Tatyana Ivakhnina

You will tell me how to reach the sky.
I will tell you if I'd ever been high.
You will tell me what a dream is,
And together, we'll explore all this.

* * *

You will draw the far galaxies' axis.
I'll show that I'm a wizard of practice.
You will offer me a mass of routine,
I'll paint it into a colourful scene –

* * *

Bright, of no colours to dup...
If nobody wakes me up.
