

«Rain will Wash us»

(Eng) Translated by Makarenko Catherine

The rain will wash off all the wrinkles,
The sunshine will relax them smooth.
You've grown old for no reason,
I've grown old following you.

* * *

My dream, you quickly disappears
If you get tangled in winds of years.
Your force is still enough, my dear,
For verses and for all refrains.

* * *

The rain will wash off all the wrinkles,
The sunshine will relax them smooth.
You've grown old for no reason,
I've become younger following you.
